Wallace Owen, of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen, Divides Honors With the Riverside Crack

BALD HEAD AMONG MESSENGER BOYS

the Fall meet of the New York State Division, L. A. W. under the auspices of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen at the Manhar tan Beach track yesterday afternoon, witnessed some excellent sport. Beyond a little loading in the heats, the racing was of the highest o der, while the finishes were close and excit ng, always arousing great enthusiasm. A heavy wind prevented extraordinary fas time being made.

The honors if the day were divided between Owen and Barbeau, the former capturing the cuarter and the latter the two-mile State championship. Owen was placed second in the latter race, besides winning a prize in the tandem event. He was all cut up rom recent falls, but was probably urged on in his efforts by a prepossessing young indy, who occupied a seat in the grand stan I and continually shouted, Go on, Wally!" whenever he passed.

Probably the most entertaining feature of the meet was the messenger boys' race. There were boys of all kinds, one with a baid head and others with thin legs. The winner turned up in a chap from Syracuse, who certainly rod : like an old timer. Not a few onlookers claimed he was a pro-

B. C. Fuller, who had an easy time winning the novice race, rode under protest, as it was claimed that he had won a prize on a track previous to yesterday. He started and won the third heat of the quartermile championship, but was not eligible to in the final as it was found that he re-
